THE DLI LIBRARY

Our members also enjoy access to the DLI Library. Located in dlr Mill Theatre, Dundrum, the DLI Library collection consists of more than five thousand plays, all of which are available on loan. Members are always welcome to visit us in person (10 - 3pm Mon - Thur), but many also choose to avail of our postal loan service.

A full searchable online catalogue can be found on the DLI website, at dli.ie/dli-play-library/

There, you will find a wide variety of one acts and full lengths written by Irish and international authors, new and old.

We are always working to, develop the library to meet the needs of our members as best we can.

For library enquiries, send us an email dlilibrarydundrum@gmail.com or call (01) 296 9343.

DLI GROUP INSURANCE

The DLI has organised a tailor-made public liability policy for member groups through Marsh Insurances www.marsh.com.

This scheme offers substantial savings and is exclusive to DLI members. Applicants must be in possession of a 2023 DLI Group Membership number to avail of the scheme.

Please check with the company for 2023-24 rates and areas covered. The common renewal date for 2023/24 policies is 1 June 2023. Check with Marsh for the best terms to suit your group. (Note that any group which organises a festival requires additional cover. All groups participating in a festival must have their own insurance).

Summer School Director: Ollie Kenny

Committee: Elaine McLoughlin,
Christine O'Brien & Willie O'Brien

If you are considering attending Summer School in 2023, why not contact your local County Council Arts Office to check if they are offering bursaries? Each year, a number of Summer School participants receive a full or partial bursary from their local county council towards their costs. You can find your local Arts Officer on www.localartsireland.ie
